9. To exercise our rights and assume our responsibilities as Christian citizens.

ARTICLE V - CHURCH COVENANT

Having been led, as we trust, by the Spirit of God to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior and, on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, we do now in the presence of God and this assembly most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another as one body in Christ, under the name and mission of Hampton Baptist Church.

We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge, holiness, service, and edification; to promote its prosperity and spirituality; to sustain its worship, ordinances, doctrines, and disciplines; to contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the church, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the gospel in our community and the world.

We covenant with each other to walk together in Christian love to the glory of our common Lord and Master; to exercise a Christian love and care over each other; to cultivate Christian sympathy and feeling and courtesy in speech; to be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation and mindful for the rules of our Savior to secure it without delay; to remember each other in prayer; and to strive to grow into the likeness of Him who is the image of God, and has called us to be partakers of the divine nature.

We moreover engage that when we remove from this place we will, as soon as possible, unite with some other church where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's word.
